1. The Arado aircraft factory in Brandenburg has been fifty percent transferred to the East. The rest of the works have already been or will be transferred to Bleicherode, Stammerda, and Nordhausen. The plants there were completely installed only after the end of the war and have since been operating with German workers in underground workshops. Workers confirm the production of Ar 234 planes (turbine fighters).
2. The Orenstein and Koppel plants in Potsdam-Babelsberg are producing locomotives for the Red Army.
